Course Of Action

Event managers responsible for 4-H events and activities are encouraged to communicate to 4-H participants and adult chaperones prior to the event a standard of acceptable behavior, via the Consequences of Misbehavior and Code of Conduct. Standards of behavior and consequences should be reviewed with participants as part of the initial orientation.

- 1. Event Manager obtains all the relevant facts.
- 2. Brief the on-site adult responsible for the youth delegate (Extension faculty member or 4-H volunteer).
- 3. If not on-site, but available via phone, brief the county Extension faculty member and District Extension Administrator responsible.
- 4. Review consequences of misbehavior. The following steps should be taken when sending a 4-H member home: Extension faculty member contacts parents.

Parents advised that child is being sent home by safest, most direct means, and that parents are responsible for cost.

- Event manager decides if parents should be given the option of picking up the child. County Extension faculty member collects money from parent to pay transportation charges.
- Follow-up correspondence from event's manager to appropriate county Extension faculty member, District 4-H Leadership Team, child and parent for documentation.
- 5. For all reprimands a Summary Letter and Accident/Incident Report Form will be completed and mailed to the 4-H member, parent, County Extension Agents, District Extension Administrator, County Extension Directors (if applicable), 4-H Specialist, and Texas 4-H Youth Program Director.
